

Dear Friends:

Each year the Board of Directors of United Voices for Children selects individuals or groups to receive the Bishop Jesse R. DeWitt Child Advocacy Award, the Katherine B. Greene Child Worker Award and the Rev. Margaret Ann Williams Service Award. These awards honor extraordinary volunteer service or advocacy efforts on behalf of children, youth and/or families throughout the Northern Illinois Conference.

As a member of a local United Methodist Church, you know who is doing this good work in your church or community. Please look around and nominate an individual or a group who deserves this recognition.

A nomination form is attached. Nominations for the 2019 awards will be accepted until April 5, 2019. Please submit to:

Mark Bowman
United Voices for Children
5352 N. Kenmore Avenue, #3
Chicago, IL 60640
(773) 316-8892
unitedvoicesforchildren@gmail.com

You can help us tell others about effective ministries for children and families throughout our Conference. Please consider submitting electronically and including photos of the ministry in action!

Won't you please respond with a nomination for this award?

Yours in Christ,

Robert Biekman

2019 Award Nomination Form

Indicate which award is being proposed for this nominee:

- 2019 Bishop Jesse R. DeWitt Child Advocacy Award (As our bishop from 1980 to 1988, Jesse R. DeWitt represented and spoke out for children, youth and families who did not have a voice. He was passionate about educating & informing local churches about legislation & issues impacting the lives of children.)
- 2019 Katherine B. Greene Child Worker Award (Katherine B. Greene was a past president and founding representative of UVC who put forth tremendous efforts in promoting child advocacy, working faithfully against child abuse and enthusiastically advancing support of children with unmet needs across the Northern Illinois Conference.)
- 2019 Rev. Margaret Ann Williams Service Award (Rev. Margaret Ann Williams is the former Associate Executive Director of Church Relations at Marcy Newberry. This award was created to honor her 33 years on the UVC Board of Directors. Rev. Williams' dedicated service has influenced the lives of children, the church and community for nearly 50 years.)
